YOUR EXPERTS IN DIALOG

New dialog functions for initiating contact and interacting with visitors!

Nothing is more valuable in these challenging times than personal interaction.

List your experts and contact persons on all pages of your digital presence and talk with your visitors easily via video call. New appointment scheduling options, including a convenient calendar function, are available for this purpose.

With 3, 8 or 25 contact persons depending on participation package

THREE STEPS TO BUSINESS DATING

REGISTRATION

- Depending on your participation package, you will receive a specific number of "Digital Exhibitor Passes" in the Exhibitor Shop with individual codes for registering your contact persons.
- You can send the direct link with the code for registration from the store to each colleague by e-mail.
- Your contact persons register on the website and create a personal profile.

PUBLISHING

- You publish your own pages for your company and your products. You manage the appearance of the pages via the Exhibitor Content Manager ("ECM").
- After registering, your contacts can individually select the pages of your company and/or products and publish themselves there with photo, title, name and job title.

ACTIVATION OF BUSINESS DATING

- Now, each contact can simply activate Business Dating and set their appointment availability individually.
- Visitors can now request appointments with you.
- Simultaneously, the matchmaking service will be activated for each contact person, so that they can search for other participants and request appointments themselves.

YOUR CONTACT PERSONS

Your contacts will be published with photo, title, name and job title on the pages of your presentation.

Visitors can email a contact form or request an appointment once your contacts set their availability for meetings.

MATCHMAKING

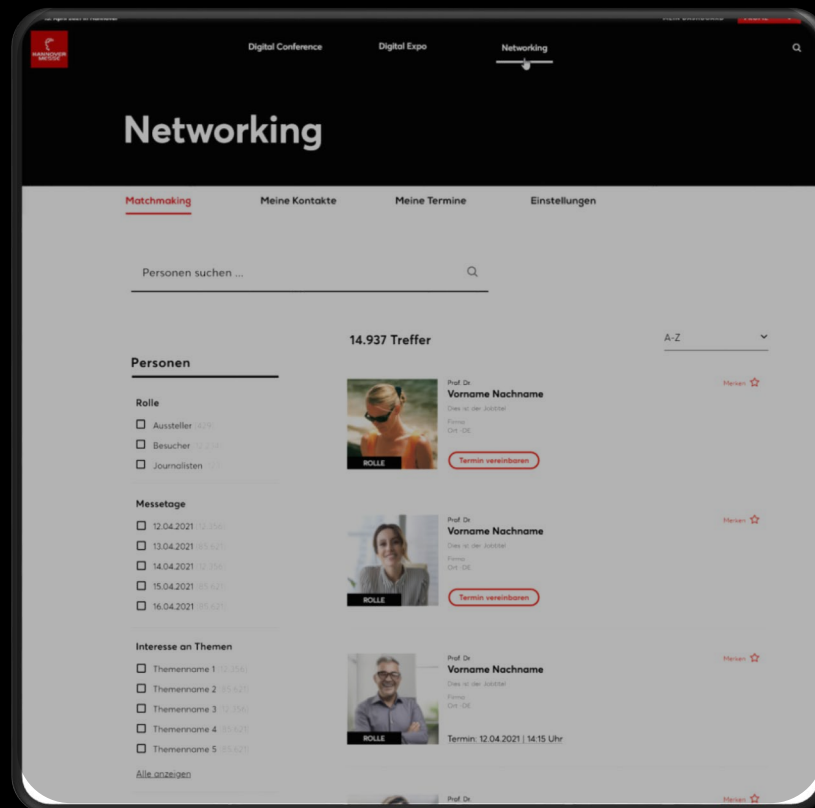

At HANNOVER MESSE 2021, for the first time you can meet visitors digitally.

Our new networking service enables visitors to publish their own profile. The advantage for you as an exhibitor: You can find visitors based on their interests, contact goals or other criteria, arrange appointments with them, and get in touch via video call.

So, go on a targeted search for suitable new customers!
